

Sweeney Announces Candidacy

Marilyn Sweeney of Elm Street has announced she is a candidate for a three-year term on the Board of Health.

Mrs. Sweeney a summer resident since 1953 and a permanent one 12 years, is vice chairman of the South Metro Council, an advisory sub-regional council of the Health Systems Agency for Greater Boston. For the past three years, Mrs. Sweeney has been on the board of the council and during the last year, has been its consumer vice president. In addition, she was appointed by the governor to represent the Health Systems Agency on the state Health Coordinating Council developed to review health systems plans of the state and a state health plan.

As a member of the Health Systems Plan Committee, a plan was developed that encompassed the various sectors of health care and its delivery systems into a plan for Boston and its five regional councils. The agency has received its full designation under the law based on that effort. Mrs. Sweeney said in her announcement statement she is committed to promotion of good health and disease prevention techniques.

Mrs. Sweeney holds a certificate from Northeastern University as a family/community health worker and is working toward a B.A. degree at the UMass. College of Public and Community Service. While at Northeastern, Mrs. Sweeney was on the Dean's List. Her field work was at the Roxbury Comprehensive Health Center and the Brockton Multi-Service Center.

Mrs. Sweeney and her husband Bob have three children, all either now attending or who have attended Cohasset schools.

Mrs. Sweeney is a part-time secretary for the Water and Sewer Departments. She has been a library aide at the Osgood School and a member of the Communications Council of the Deer Hill School. Mrs. Sweeney was a kindergarten and lower school teacher at the First Parish Church and worked on curriculum for the primary grades. She was also the church's representative to the annual fair on the Common. As a member of the League of Women Voters, Mrs. Sweeney participated in the school study done in 1968-69 by the league. As a young mother, she helped form the first Baby-sitting Cooperative in Cohasset, which still functions. And in 1967-68, Mrs. Sweeney was hospitality chairman of the Cohasset-Scituate Newcomers.
